"FOUND WANTING"

STRONGEST SERMON HEARD IN YEARS DELIVERED AT TABERNACLE.

ATTACKS STRONGHOLDS OF SIN

Rev. Reuben Archer Torrey, D. D., Delivers Masterful Lecture On the Ten Commandments—Best of the Series.

NOTES.

There are two soloists, Prof. Butler and Mr. Young. Both sing at every evening service and are greatly appreciated.

The afternoon service is growing in attendance and interest.

The stillness at last evening's service could be felt. Two services daily in Tabernacle at 3:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Meeting at First Baptist church at 7:00 p. m. for half an hour.

The best service of the series of meetings now in progress was held at the Tabernacle last evening. The place was full to the doors and a sermon was preached on modern sins which arrested the attention of all, and every statement was proven in accordance with the scripture.

In the afternoon Dr. Torrey addresses the church people and others on the subject of prayer. These meetings are full of power and helpful. As usual, Mr. Butler sang a solo. One of the noticeable things is that the singers are consecrated men who are here simply to help men nearer to God.

Whenever Mr. Young takes his place ready to sing you can see that he sings in the atmosphere of prayer. The fact is that Dr. Torrey is surrounded with a splendid corps of helpers. Mr. Jacoby, Miss Anderson, Mr. Young and Prof. Butler, as well as Miss Parker, are all people whose every energy seems to be for the good of the men and women of this city.

Following is an outline of the striking sermon of last night:

"Found Wanting."

Daniel 5: 25, "Tekel; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting."

Anyone who loves the drama should read the Bible, for the Bible is the most dramatic book that was ever written. One of the most intensely interesting and at the same time suggestive scenes in the Bible is that described in Daniel 5. Belshazzar's feast. Belshazzar was not the supreme king of Babylon. Nabonidus, his father, was king, and had associated him with himself on the throne; Belshazzar was second ruler in the kingdom. But now Belshazzar was in supreme command in the city. His father, Nabonidus, had been shut outside the city walls by the forces of Cyrus. Puffed up by the pride of his newly-gotten power, Belshazzar makes a great banquet. The palace is a blaze of light. The long tables are set for more than a thousand guests. They are brilliant and dazzling with plates and cups and tankards of silver and gold, many jewelled, reflecting back the light from countless candelabra. Reclining at the tables are the guests, with fingers and arms ringed and jewelled. The air is heavy with perfume and tremulous with the music of harp and dulcimer and sackbut. Between the tables the oriental women weave through the contortions and distortions of the oriental dance. Back and forth across the tables fly jest and repartee.

In the midst of this hilarity a strange and daring conceit enters the mind of the royal entertainer. Belshazzar whispers to his chief steward a command. The guests are all agog with curiosity to know what the mysterious mandate may be. Their curiosity is soon gratified; for the chief steward, followed by a host of retainers, comes in bearing in their arms the cups of gold and silver which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from the temple of Jehovah after the sack of the city of Jerusalem. Belshazzar commands that the cups be filled with Babylonian wine, and passed from lip to lip—while he and his guests sing the praises of the gods of gold and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

The hilarity becomes more boisterous. Louder and louder thrum the instruments, faster and faster fly the feet of the dancers, swifter and swifter fly jest and repartee. Suddenly a hush like death falls upon the banquet hall. One of the retainers, lifting his eyes to the wall, sees the fingers of a man's hand writing. As he gazes in wonder he becomes the center of observation, and all eyes turn in the same direction. Now the king turns and looks also. There, writing in characters of fire are the mysterious fingers of an armless hand. Terror freezes Belshazzar to the very soul. In the graphic language of the prophet Dan-

A pretty wedding ceremony was solemnized at 3 o'clock this afternoon when Lewis A. Mothersbaugh, a prosperous young farmer of near Syracuse, and Miss Maria M. Raiffeisen, of the same place, and a sister of C. H. Raiffeisen, of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's brother, 1903 West Third street.

The Rev. Otto Press, pastor of the German Evangelical church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by immediate relatives.

A wedding luncheon is being served this afternoon, and the bridal couple will go to Syracuse to go to housekeeping on the groom's farm.

Mr. Mothersbaugh is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mothersbaugh, of Syracuse. He is well known in this county, where he has many friends, all of whom will learn of the marriage with pleasure.

His bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lottie Raiffeisen, of Syracuse, and, like her husband, has a legion of friends, all of whom will join the Democrat-Sentinel in extending congratulations.

BURIAL OF MR. HATTON

A Report That His Daughter, Mabel, Was to Have Wed Today.

The funeral of Robert I. Hatton, a former Sedalia, whose death at Los Tanos, N. M., was chronicled in Tuesday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel, was held at Los Tanos today, burial being made there. Ex-Alderman F. F. Hatton, a brother, was with "Bob" when he died.

Deceased is survived by his widow, a son, "Cap," aged 30, and a daughter, Mabel, aged 21, who, according to an uncorroborated report, was to have been married to a ranchman at Los Tanos today.

Mrs. Hatton is now the owner of a 160-acre tract of land in New Mexico, and by reason of the death of her husband secures a deed to the land without paying the governmental requirement of $125 per acre.

RAIDED KANSAS JOINT

A Former Sedalia Divine Did at Leavenworth Today.

Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 10.—Rev. F. H. Brown, a Baptist, and Rev. E. L. Cunningham, of the Christian church, formerly of Sedalia, today led a raid on a joint which resulted in the seizure of a quantity of beer and whisky in a house on Cherokee street.

The ministers had watched soldiers who were paid off yesterday and found many of them entering this house. The divines appeared at headquarters today and volunteered to lead the raid.

Total of 858 Licenses.

Thirteen hunters' licenses were issued today by Deputy County Clerk H. F. Imhoff, making a total of 558 issued to date.

WED FIFTY YEARS

MR. AND MRS. PETER RAST TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

IT TAKES PLACE THURSDAY NIGHT

Been Residents of Sedalia for Twenty-Eight Years—Married in Switzerland—Five Children Are Living.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rast, two of Sedalia's most highly esteemed residents, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at their home, 411 South Engineer avenue, tomorrow night.

In anticipation of the celebration Mr. and Mrs. Rast are arranging an entertainment to be given at their home at which their children, grandchildren and other relatives and friends to the number of twenty-five will attend.

A sumptuous supper will be a feature of the affair, which will be concluded late that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Rast were united in marriage at Lucerne, Switzerland, fifty years ago tomorrow. Mrs. Rast's maiden name was Miss Kathryn Schwenemann. The ceremony occurred in the identical church where both were baptized, also in the same church where the parents of each were wedded. Both Mr. and Mrs. Rast received their first holy communion in the church where they became husband and wife.

In 1866 Mr. Rast and bride came to America. Two years later they settled at St. Louis, where for a period of six years Mr. Rast held a lucrative position with the Anzeiger des Westens, the leading German newspaper of that city.

In 1878 Mr. and Mrs. Rast came to Sedalia. Shortly after arriving here the former secured a position in the Missouri Pacific shops, where for the past twenty-eight years he has worked faithfully, until today he is considered one of the most reliable and faithful employees on the company's pay-roll.

Mr. Rast is 78 years of age, while his wife is 71. Eleven children blessed their union, five of whom survive, as follows: Louis and Will Rast, both of Sedalia; Mrs. Lizzie Forster, of Little Rock, Ark.; Fred, of St. Louis, and Miss Josie Rast, of this city.

The couple has nine grandchildren. Mr. Rast is the last surviving member of a family of fifteen children, while his wife is the last surviving member of a family of seven.

A noteworthy fact in connection with the celebration will be that the couple and their children will attend holy communion in a body at Sacred Heart church tomorrow morning.

Among the out-of-town people to attend the celebration will be Mrs. Marie Wiegmann, of St. Louis, a cousin of Mrs. Rast.

WON THE BUNTING

FORMER SEDALIAN AT HEAD OF CHAMPION BALL CLUB OF SOUTHWEST.

DAN O'DONOVAN AT DOUGLAS, ARIZ

Few Years Ago Was Superintendent of the Street Railway Here—Now Has the Same Position Out in the West.

By winning from the Socorro, N. M., team at El Paso, Texas, last Saturday, by a score of 13 to 3, Dan O'Donovan's Douglas, Arizona, club won the championship of the southwest.

Douglas won four straight victories. Scott, of the Chicago White Sox, pitched for Douglas, and won three victories in as many days. In the Saturday game Scott was opposed by Rube Waddell, of the St. Louis Browns.

"Dan" O'Donovan, manager of the Douglas club, was formerly superintendent of the Sedalia street car lines and has a host of friends here. He is now superintendent of the lines at Douglas, and has several Sedalia boys working for him. One of the number, Harry Inch, sends the Democrat-Sentinel a copy of the Douglas Daily Dispatch of Sunday, in which is a picture of Mr. O'Donovan and the following editorial:

O'Donovan, of County Clare, the Dispatch, in the name of the citizenship of Douglas, and their wives and sweethearts, extends heartiest congratulations and the assurance that the town is yours. You have but to name the honor you most covet and it is yours. You have sought the enemy and licked him to a frazzle. It's a feat compared with which the crossing of the Alps by Napoleon and the fall of the French upon the Austrians at Ulm and Austerlitz is as nothing—for none of us were living then, and today we're one and all living, breathing boosters for Douglas, Arizona.

For weeks El Paso had prepared to tinge the diamond with the Douglas gore, but it is today beheld with the blood of El Paso, of Morenci, of Socorro, of Colonia Dublin and of Matthews, Waddell and "Dolly" Gray. Throughout the United States of America the children are singing their praises of the mighty Demons of Douglas and recounting the historic deeds of the immortal Jimmy Scott and the Wolfe who has dragged the prey to his lair. The feast has been for Douglas and the bones for El Paso. None others ever got out of the soup.

Don't come home without every last one of the team behind you. The populace and the brass bands are waiting for you. It's a great day for Douglas, and O'Donovan and his Demons are IT.

THE MISSING HEAD

OF THE SUITCASE VICTIM MYSTERY WAS DISCOVERED YESTERDAY.

THE DOCTOR MAKES CONFESSION

Believed Fainting Woman Was Dead and Discovered Mistake After Amputating Leg—Caused Her Own Death.

Taunton, Mass., Nov. 10.—"Prof." Frank L. Hill, the "herb" doctor, indicted for manslaughter, in causing the death of Amelia St. Jean, of Woonsocket, yesterday made a confession, retracting the previous plea of not guilty in the district court here, and pleaded guilty. The dismembered body which was found in Tiverton, R. I., a month ago, was that of the St. Jean girl.

It was alleged by the police that the young woman had visited Hill for the purpose of submitting to an illegal operation, which it was supposed resulted in her death.

He made a confession, in which, after telling how the girl came to him and was treated, he said:

"She collapsed. I thought she had fainted. I threw water in her face, rubbed her hands and put ammonia beneath her nostrils for her to inhale. For over two hours I worked over her trying to revive her. It was impossible for me to believe that she was dead, but when her body began to grow cold I knew it must be so. 'I was afraid to call a doctor or the police. In my frenzy my first and only thought was to conceal the fact that she had died in my store. In my desperation and without giving further thought to the consequences, I started to dismember the body.

"Grabbing a knife, I amputated the right leg. Then the thought dawned upon me that I had made a serious mistake. I realized, however, that having gone so far there was nothing left for me to do but continue in the mad work I had undertaken. 'Later on, after having washed the floor of the room, I hired a horse and buggy, placed the bag and box containing the remains in it and drove to Tiverton. Not being familiar with the country thereabouts, I am unable to say exactly what other course I took or just where I threw the contents of the box and bag.

"That night (Saturday) about 9:30, I took the head, wrapped it in a black skirt which the girl had worn, and went up Robinson street, to a point near the switch at the foot of the hill leading down from St. Patrick's cemetery. There I threw the head into the bushes on the west side of the street, and went home."

Following the confession of "Dr." Hill, the head of the dead girl was found by the police yesterday in Fall River, just where Hill said he had thrown it.

Hill maintained that the girl herself performed the illegal operation charged against him.

HENRY MARSLAND DEAD

Mr. Marsland was 70 years of age. The stroke affected one entire side of his body, also his power of speech. He had made his home with his nephew for a number of years.

PAYING THE PIPER.

"War is hell," said General Sherman, whilst we were in the heat and stress of our great civil conflict. But not he, nor any other of the participants in that frightful struggle fully measured the cost. The civil war has, indeed, cost more since it was ended than all the direct expenses incurred in carrying it on. The current annual report of the pension commissioner gives the following statement of disbursement for pensions from the beginning of the government:

War of the Revolution..$	70,000,000
War of 1812.....	45,737,396
Indian wars.....	9,395,609
War with Mexico.....	42,492,784
Civil war.....	3,686,461,840
War with Spain.....	26,283,805
Regular establishment..	15,507,028
Unclassified .....	16,484,049
Total .....	$3,813,082,501

The above total does not include the pension payments for the present fiscal year, which will increase the amount to over $4,000,000,000. Since the war was ended there has been no reason to modify the terse opinion of General Sherman. He knew what he was talking about.

DIVORCE AND PROHIBITION.

The annual report of Dr. Young, register of vital statistics, shows that 887 divorces were decreed in Maine during the past year, an increase of 100 over the year preceding. The wife was the libellant in 632 divorces, and the husband in 255 cases. Among the chief causes of divorce, intoxication comes second after desertion.
For intoxication the husband was the libellant in 11 cases and the wife in 105 cases. Nearly one-seventh of all the divorces during the past year were the direct product of confirmed drunkenness. A curious and significant temperance exhibit for the home
state of prohibition.

There are some disadvantages ac-them. Is it expected that they will

The list of definitions of optimist and pessimist is not yet exhausted.
A jocular addition is that the optifeet.

The announcement that Col. Roosevelt has shipped an aepyrocros me-

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has now proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.

EXCITEMENT SPREADING

MANY PEOPLE GOING TO WIL-COX'S DRUG STORE.

While it was known by a few people of Sedalia that the remedy, Root Juice, has created considerable excitement throughout the state by making scores of remarkable cures during the past few months, it was not supposed so many people from out of town were interested, but many from the country are helping to swell the crowds that are calling at the drug store to learn of the remarkable discovery. A traveling man in the presence of a number of home people said: "I wouldn't take this whole town for what Root Juice did for me. I suffered with my stomach and kidneys for years. I tried everything that I could put the least confidence in, but continued to grow worse. At times I felt like I had rocks in the pit of my stomach.
Often gas would form in my stomach and bowels and press up against my heart so that it would feel like it would stop beating. Frequently I would get deathly sick and throw up my food. Oftentimes there was a raw, burning sensation in the pit of my stomach and I was never free from pain in my back and limbs. The doctors said the pain in the limbs was rheumatic. While at Lafayette I heard so much of Root Juice that I decided to try it. I bought three bottles and by the time it was used I had a good appetite and could digest fat pork. I do not believe any one enjoys better health than I now enjoy." The Root Juice people have hundreds of testimonials of those who have been cured by the remedy.
It is sold for one dollar a bottle, or three bottles for two dollars and a half. The great remedy is now being demonstrated at Wilcox's drug store.

You Can't Do It

can do without. One sure way to save money is by opening a

iel, "The king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other." In a few minutes Belshazzar pulls himself together, and hoarsely cries, "Bring neither the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers." In come the magi of Babylon, splendidly apparelled, with proud and stately tread. Expectation rises high in their hearts. They think that by their cunning arts they can deceive
the king, and gain new emoluments;
but only for a moment. The look of confidence fades from their faces.
The writing is beyond their art.

Again terror lays hold on Belshaz-zar. Again his countenance was changed in him. The queen-mother bears the confusion. She walks in with stately tread, and tries to reassure her royal son. And she proceeds to sing the praises of Daniel.
Daniel is summoned. Belshazzar turns to him and says, "O Daniel, I have heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom."

Daniel, with noble pride, scorns the proffered gifts. "Let the gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another. I will have none of them; but I will read yonder writing, and make known to thee the interpretation." But Daniel first proceeds to rebuke the blasphemous daring of Belshaz-zar. He recalls the history of Nebuchadnezzar, his grandfather, and how God had humbled his stout-hearted pride. Then he says, "The God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified though thou knewest all this;
then was part of the hand sent from Him; and this writing was written.
And this is the writing that was written. Mene, Mene, Tekel, Uphar-sin." This is the interpretation of the thing:

Mene; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

Tekel, Thou art weighed in the balance and art found wanting.

Peres, Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

Belshazzar calls for the royal robe,
and it is placed on Daniel. A chain of gold is cast about his neck, and he is proclaimed next to Belshazzar, third ruler in the kingdom. The royal banquet goes on. The hilarity increases; but hark! the tramp, tramp, tramp of soldiers' feet in the streets of Babylon. The armies of Cyrus have turned the waters of the Euphrates, and have come in by the river bed and the two leaved gates of Babylon.

There is a crashing sound at the gate. The guests look round for a place to flee. But it is too late.
Tramp, tramp, tramp, up the palace stairs, with a crash and a rush, the Persian and Median soldiers come in.
Swords flash in air for a moment.
Belshazzar looks up and sees the sword over his head. It falls. Belshaz-

"Liquor" at Oyster

Prices

Oysters shipped in open tubs have to be reiced many times in transit.
The ice is put in the tub WITH THE OYSTERS. As fast as one piece melts another is put in.

This melted ice washes the fine sea flavor out of the oyster—bloats
it—bleaches it—makes it taste flat and insipid.

The melted ice is the "liquor"
which is sold to you at OYSTER
PRICES.

zar is a corpse. "For in that night was Belshazzar, the king of the Chal-deans slain." I call your attention to one word on the wall.

"Tekel; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting." In whose balances was Belshazzar weighed? The balances of God. Not in the balances of his own estimation; he would never have been found wanting there. Not in the balances of public opinion; the men of Babylon would have said, "Belshazzar is the greatest of our statesmen, and the coming man." Not in the balances of human philosophy. In the balances of God.

Every man and woman here tonight is to be weighed in the same balances, the balances of God. How much do you suppose you weigh in the balances of God? Is there any way in which we can tell how much we weigh in the balances of God?
There is. God has given us the weights wherewith He weighs us.

Turn to Ex. 20 and you will get the first ten weights by which God weighs men—the well known Ten Commandments. Let me read them.

"Thou shalt have no other gods before me." What is a man's God? A man's god is the thing he thinks most of. If a man thinks more of money than anything else, money is his god.
Many a man is sacrificing conscience, sacrificing honor, sacrificing obedience to God to gain money. Gold is your god and you are found wanting by the first commandment of God.
There are men who worship gold just as really as if they had a sovereign hung up in their bed chamber, and said their prayers to it. Many worship social position. How many are doing things in the matter of dress and in matters of social life that are disapproved by conscience? But it is what society does and they think that if they do not do the same they will lose their position in society.
You are putting society before God.
Society is your god. Many a man worships whisky. How many a man is sacrificing brain power, his business capacity, the respect of his fellow citizens, the reverence of his wife and children, in devotion to the accursed whisky. I saw many a hideous god when I was traveling in India, all sorts of beastly images which men bow down before and worship,
but I know of no god more beastly, more disgusting than this god of whisky, upon the altar of which men are offering as a sacrifice their children and their interests. How many a young man and woman worships the god of pleasure. They are sacrificing everything that they may have pleasure. Pleasure is their god.

The third command, "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." How much do you weigh when you are weighed by that command.

And men not only break this command, but they think it is a light matter. They think that law is of no consequence. When you approach men and speak to them about Christ,
they will say, "Well, but I don't know that I need Christ. I am not a very bad man. I have never stolen anything. I have never killed anybody.
Oh, I do swear occasionally."

They think it a light matter, but God does not regard it so. If there is any sin that shows that the very foundations of a man's character are honeycombed and rotten, it is the sin of profanity. You cannot trust a profane swearer anywhere. What is the only foundation for a sound character? Reverence for God; and when that is gone the foundation of character is gone. Character may not crumble away at once, as a building does not fall the moment its foundation is rotten, in a measure, but it will fall. The foundation is gone.
No man can swear profanely until he has gotten very, very low in the moral scale. A man has to go down pretty low to speak disrespectfully of the mother who bore him. We have seen men go pretty far into sin and yet have so much manhood left that when others speak insultingly about his mother, they would resent it. A man has fallen very low who but a man has fought immeasurably lower before he will speak profanely of God.
No mother ever loved a child as God has loved you and made sacrifices for you; and if you can take God's name upon your lips in profanity you are a vile wretch. I beseech of you to get on your face before the eternal God before you sleep, and cry to Him for mercy.

But there are other ways of taking God's name in vain besides profane swearing. Much that we call praying is taking God's name in vain. Every time you kneel to say your prayers and have had no thought of God in your heart while you take His name upon your lips, you have taken God's name in vain.

The fifth command, "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." I wish I had time to dwell upon that; for we are getting into a day when the young think they know more than their parents, speaking lightly about "the old man" and the "old woman." They think father and mother are old fogies. They disobey their parents.

The child who disobeys his parents will bring upon his own head the curse of God. God have mercy upon the one, young or old, who breaks that commandment.

The sixth command—"Thou shalt not kill." How much do you weigh by that law? You say, "I am all right by that law. We have no murderers here." Are you absolutely sure?
There are other ways of killing peo-

GAB ON INSURANCE

COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR OF ILLINOIS MEETING TODAY.

EXECUTIVE SESSION IN CHICAGO

State Regulation of Rates Is the Important Feature That Is to Come Up for Consideration By Experts.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Inquiry into the sentiment among business men as to the advisability of the state of Illinois undertaking the regulation of fire insurance rates has been concluded by the commission appointed by Gov. Deneen, and the investigators met in Chicago today for an executive session, at which they will complete plans for the hearings which are expected to develop from underwriting and rate-making experts the facts for which the commission is seeking.

The commission feels that it has now developed the average public sentiment as to state regulation of rates, which generally favors it. This is largely because of the involved and technical nature of the rate-making problem, which the general public, with many insurance men, cannot understand.

The insured is given a figure which he is told he must pay. If he inquires he is shown the details of an elaborate schedule, making charges for deficiencies in his risk from the assumed standard and giving credits for improvements.

He does not know whether those charges and credits are correct or not, and is equally at sea as to the basis rate upon which they are built up.

For that reason, because he does not know and cannot know, he asks that the state intervene, compile the statistics and see that he gets a fair show.

Most of the witnesses said they would be satisfied with any rate if they were only sure they were not being gouged and that no favoritism was being shown.

Having developed this sentiment, the commission will endeavor to learn from underwriters, rate making experts, economists and others whether it is possible and advisable to meet it, or whether the same end can be reached by changes in present underwriting methods, with a minimum of state interference.

Mrs. Carter in "Vesta Herne." Mrs. Leslie Carter's appearance at Wood's opera house last night in her new play, "Vesta Herne," was greeted by a small though thoroughly appreciative audience.

Mrs. Carter is still the great actress, powerful and vivid, reaching the very apex of dramatic strength when called upon to do so by her lines. The play, however, isn't a pleasing one, the theme is rather nasty and the atmosphere throughout is lacking in wholesomeness. It is well written and some of the climaxes are extremely striking. The supporting company is good and the stage settings more than usually elaborate and appropriate.

Mrs. Carter displayed an indifference to the pleasure of the women portion of her audience by appearing in three scenes in the same gown, when it is said she has separate magnificent costumes for each.

If you have some Diapepsin handy and would take a little now your stomach distress or indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine.

—This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disturbance.

SOME manufacturers believe you will forget this fall's overcoat by next year. We believe to the contrary. They think if a suit or overcoat lasts one year you'll be satisfied. We know different.

If we please you this year—if you can look back over last year's toggery you purchased at The Quality Store—if we redeemed our promise with facts—you're coming back, otherwise you're going elsewhere. Fact, isn't it? The clothes we sell are built to be remembered. They come from the best men's shops in the world—the kind you like to wear, the kind that look best, last longest and are the pride of the well dressed man.

We've hammered the life out of profit—you buy your clothes here at a minimum figure and we both get the benefit—you, in increased money values; we, in your patronage. Selling prices in plain figures in every department—you pay as much as the other fellow, and he the same as you. No double dealing. Ask our customers; they'll tell the truth, and you will, if not already, become what they are—"A satisfied customer of The Quality Store."

"I CAN'T SEE"

I can't see as well as I should, is a common complaint you hear, not only from older people, but from young as well. Age is no criterion for the wearing of glasses. Many are born with greater defects than come with age. Young people inherit and cultivate defects by strain and abuse. Young, old or middle-aged, if you are not getting the service from your eyes that you think you should, you ought certainly to ascertain the nature of your trouble.

Rub Dry Towels

The only towels worth a name.

Just as a blotter absorbs the ink, so these towels absorb the moisture, since the thousands of tiny nubs which cover the surface of each towel is made upon practically the same principle as the blotter. Delightfully refreshing to use for either sponge or tub baths, so light enough for the tenderest skin, yet rough enough to produce the delightful after effects of active blood circulation when rubbed briskly. The peculiar "RUB DRY" weave is designed to preserve the absorbent quality of the nubs, and its construction is such as to assure the best possible wear out of it.

Rub Dry towels are warranted to outwear any other towel on the market.

TRUTH ABOUT CATARRH

Sensible Methods Will Cure It—W. E. Bard Drug Co. Guarantees Hyomei to Cure Catarrh.

Catarrh can never be cured by taking medicines into the stomach nor by sprays, atomizers or douches.

Intelligent physicians have long ago discarded such ideas and not one of them would be worth considering were it not for the fact that unscrupulous persons prey upon the ignorance of the people in regard to new discoveries.

Catarrh is caused by germs and just as long as these germs thrive in the folds, crevices, nooks and corners of the mucous membrane that line the nose, throat and chest, just so long will you have catarrh.

There is only one way to cure catarrh, and that is to kill the germs.

There is only one remedy that will kill the germs when it gets where the germs are, and that is Hyomei.

Hyomei is made chiefly from Australian Eucalyptus and Eucaliptol combined with other germ killing antiseptics. Just breathe it in through the hard rubber inhaler that comes with each outfit and relief is immediate. Used regularly for a few weeks Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mee) will cure chronic catarrh. Complete outfit $1.00 at W. E. Bard Drug Co., and leading druggists everywhere.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—cures blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruse your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

If Clocks Could Talk

What a lot of queer stories would be given to the world! What a tale the mantle clock in the parlor could tell—of courting and quarreling and kissing and making up. What a lot of good dinners the dining room clock has seen eaten, with never a mouthful for itself! And the dainty French clock in my lady's boudoir—how many secrets it must know! To be sure, all well behaved clocks hold their hands before their faces, but they must see everything just the same.

We have a collection of handsome and well behaved clocks—clocks that always tell the truth about time and that tell nothing else. We have clocks from $1.00 and up. And don't forget to consult our expert optician, if you need glasses.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

HAS SEVERAL PLUMS TO GIVE OUT

Three Positions That Command Salaries of $17,500 Each Per Annum—Many Jobs With Pay That Is Satisfactory.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Taft is spending the day in Richmond, but is due in Washington this evening. He will have little time to recover from the effects of his long journey, as he is due to make an address tomorrow before the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention here, and he has engagements at Middletown, Conn., on Friday, at New Haven next Monday, and at Norfolk and Hampton, Va., on November 19 and 20.

But this trouble does not end there. The anxious seats are occupied today by long rows of more or less distinguished politicians and statesmen, awaiting the return of the president and the shaking of many rich plums from the patronage tree. Many of the plums are rich and juicy, and there are hundreds of men now in Washington who are willing to sacrifice their personal interests and devote their talents unselfishly to the service in the country, in some one of the following jobs:

Judge of the supreme court to succeed Justice Rufus W. Peckham: life job at $12,500 annually.

Ambassador to Great Britain in Whitelaw Reid's place at $17,500 annually.

Ambassador to Austria in Charles S. Francis' place at $17,500 annually.

A minister to China in place of Charles R. Crane at $17,500 annually.

Assistant secretary of the treasury in place of James B. Reynolds at $4,500 annually.

Assistant secretary of the department of commerce and labor in place of Ormsby McHarg, at $4,500 a year.

District Judge at Chicago in place of Judge Bethua at $6,000.

Postmaster at Washington in place of Benjamin F. Barnes at $6,500 a year.

In addition the president may have to appoint another justice of the supreme court in place of Justice Moody, whose health may compel his resignation. Five judges and half a dozen assistants to the attorney general are to be appointed for the new customs court of appeals. Another plum may be a cabinet portfolio. The rumor is still abroad that Secretary of War Dickinson, of Tennessee, will not remain in the cabinet much longer.

Fifty-nine United States senators, republicans, are on the anxious seat waiting for the president to come back. Each one of them has from half a dozen to fifty postmasters to appoint, to say nothing of the United States marshals, district attorneys, collectors of internal revenue, collectors of customs and pension agents that they may wish to undo or to make anew.

MANY PEOPLE GAVE ADVICE

To Pauline Korn, of San Gabriel, About Her Severe Illness—and Finally She Took It.

San Gabriel, Texas.—"For two years," writes Pauline Korn, of this place, "I suffered with womanly trouble every month.

"I always suffered so much with headache and the backache and other pains.

"So many people would tell me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, so at last I tried it and found it to be a very nice medicine, as it relieved my pains.

"Cardui did me a great deal of good, for now I am well and healthy and do not suffer from any pains."

Of course, Miss Korn could have taken a drug to kill her pains, but that would not have made her "well and healthy" as Cardui did.

The great thing for you to remember about Cardui is that it is a perfectly harmless, gentle remedy, with no dangerous after-effects, whatever. It does good, that stays good.

It helps, not hinders, other medicines.

It has no habit-forming ingredients, and is safe for young and old.

As a tonic, there is nothing in the drug store like it.

As a remedy for women's ills, it has no equal.

Try it.

ELOPED WITH PA-IN-LAW

The Man Is 42 Years Old and Daughter-in-Law Is 20.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 10.—William Conover, a fireman of this city, is charged by his son, Charles Conover, with eloping with the latter's wife, a pretty woman 20 years old. The elder Conover is 42 years old.

Charles Conover is a mechanic. With his wife and 2-year-old son he had been living with his father for a year.

The father was employed by the Southern Indiana Traction company. Several days ago the wife announced she was going to visit a neighbor. About the same time the elder Conover disappeared, telling his fellow-workmen he was going to St. Louis to seek work.

Young Mrs. Conover also told friends she was going to St. Louis to live. The elder Conover leaves a wife and six children.

ALLEGED STEALING CASE

William Stewart, a Missourian. Has Taken Appeal.

Montgomery City, Mo., Nov. 10.—William Stewart, the young farmer residing near Wellsville who was arrested on a charge of stealing goods from local merchants and sent to jail, but afterward released because his case was tried on Sunday, was re-arrested and retried and he now finds himself confronted with a sentence twice as long as the one he was serving when he took advantage of the Sunday law and was released.

At his Sunday trial he pleaded guilty. At his weekday trial he pleaded not guilty. Now, rather than go to jail, he has employed new legal talent and appealed his case on its merits, without any regard or disregard for the Sunday law.

WON WRESTLING MATCH

But Sued for $25,000 for Alleged Breach of Promise.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Frank Gotch found an easy victim in Giovanni Ráiceich, the Italian wrestler, at the Coliseum last evening, taking the bout in straight falls in 6:23 and 5:26.

At no stage did the foreigner have a chance, and although he showed tremendous strength, he could not compete against the American.

Just before going upon the mat Gotch was served with papers in a $25,000 suit for damages. The plaintiff is Miss Sadie Currie, of Minneapolis, who alleges breach of promise to marry.

"THE OLD SCRATCH."

How the Evil One Came to Be Popularly Known as "The Old Scratch."

One of the many familiar names of his satanic majesty is "The Old Scratch." It is undoubtedly due to the fact that scratching is so disagreeable that people thought it no worse than the evil one. A scalp full of dandruff keeps one scratching all the time; not only disagreeable but considered very inelegant in polite society—as it should be—because one ought to keep the scalp so clean that it would not itch. To cure the scalp of dandruff effectively, use Newbro's Herpicide. It kills the germ that creates the dandruff, which is preliminary to falling hair, and, finally, baldness. No other hair preparation kills the dandruff germ. Herpicide also is a very delightful and effective hair dressing. Sold by leading druggists. ### "FOUND WANTING" ing his mother by his wild, dissolute life!

The seventh command—"Thou shalt not commit adultery." I can not dwell upon that, and yet it needs to be dwelt upon, but not here. Simply let me say that there is no sin upon which God has set the stamp of His disapproval in a plainer way, by the fearful consequences that immediately follow the sins covered by this commandment. The woman untrue to her husband; the man untrue to his wife, the curse of God always follows them.

The eighth command—"Thou shalt not steal." How much do you weigh by that law? Wait a moment. What is it to steal? To steal is to take money or property from another without giving an adequate equivalent in either property or money. For example, every man who sells goods under false pretenses is a thief. The man who sells a piece of cloth as "all wool" when it is part cotton is a thief. The man who employs labor and takes advantage of the poor man's necessity and does not give him in pay a full equivalent for his labor is a thief. Every laboring man who does not give to his employer in good honest work a fair equivalent for the wages paid to him is a thief. The gambler who gambles and wins is a thief. Every time you bet on cards, on a horse race, on a boat race, every time you invest in pools or lottery, whether it be a public lottery or a church lottery, and win, you are a thief. The man who gambles and wins is a thief; the man who gambles and loses is a fool. So every gambler is a thief or a fool.

The ninth command—"Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." I know you do not like what I am saying, but that does not alter it, and you will not escape God by trying to forget what I say. How much do you weigh by that command? "Well," you say, "I am all right by that. I was never in court in my life." Does it say anything about

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. How to Swamp-Root. You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

court? Every time you tell anything about another that is derogatory to them and is not true you have broken this law of God. Some of you say, "Did you hear that awful story about Mrs. S.? I was so sorry to hear it," you lie. You were glad to hear it, or you would have kept it to yourself. The gossip, the slanderer, is viler than the vilest thief that slinks through the purlieus of the great city tonight. The thief only steals money; the slanderer steals what money can not buy—reputation.

The tenth command—"Thou shalt not covet." God's law not only covers the overt act, but the covert thought of the heart as well. There are two heavier weights than these. Matt. 7:12, "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," the so-called Golden Rule. How many talk about it, how few keep it. Do you keep it? Always? Then you are weighed and found wanting.

The heaviest weight of all is Matt. 22:37-38: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment." How much do you weigh by that law? Have you put God first in everything? No, you say, I have not. Then you have broken the first and great commandment.

How much do we weigh, every one of us, including the preacher? Every one of us is weighed and is found wanting. What shall we do then? This is where the Gospel comes in. I have preached up to this point nothing but law. God has weighed the whole world in the balances and found it wanting, and in Christ He provided salvation for a wanting world. God sent His Son, Who perfectly kept the law and then died for you and me, who have broken it; and all you and I have to do is to take Christ into the balance with us. Christ can weigh up all the weights. When we take Christ into the balances with us then we are weighed and found not wanting. Will you take Christ into the balances with you tonight? Woe to the man who is weighed in the balances of God for the last time without having Jesus Christ with him. This may be the last opportunity for some; it may be at all events the last opportunity which you will ever take. The time will come when you will be weighed and found wanting, and you will look back and say, "Oh, why did I not listen to the preacher?" You will remember the sermon and the text, and you will say, "Oh, if I had only improved the opportunity." Will you take Christ into the balances with you? Will you do it now?

FOUND DEAD BODY

OF MISS ANNIE PELLEY, CAIRO, ILL., SHOP GIRL, IN AN ALLEY THERE.

THREE BLACK MEN ARE ARRESTED

Bloodhounds Were Put Upon Trail Several Times and in Each Instance Wound Up at the Home of a Negress.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 10.—Excitement is at fever heat here over the murder of Annie Pelley, whose body was found in an alley here yesterday.

The best citizens of Cairo are aroused, and there is open talk of lynching Will James, one of the negro suspects held in the city jail.

Dogs from Wickliffe, Ky., and Charleston, Mo., were used last night, and the final test came today, when dogs from Harrisburg, Ill., followed the same route as the Kentucky and Missouri dogs, and wound up at a cottage where James acknowledged having visited the night of the murder. From the cottage they went to the factory where James worked.

The Story of the Killing.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 10.—Three negroes and one negress are being held by the police in connection with the murder of Miss Annie Pelley, the Cairo shop girl, whose nude and mutilated body was found in an alley two blocks from her home by children yesterday morning. The arrests are a result of bloodhounds following a trail from where the body was found to the door of the negress, Georgia Cooper's home.

Two bloodhounds were first placed on the trail, and they ended up at the door of the home. They were started a second time, ending as before, at the woman's house. Three dogs from Wickliffe, Ky., were later put on the scent, and for six successive trials they went to the same place, the door of Georgia Cooper's home.

The negress was not at home when the dogs went to her house, and officers awaited her arrival and arrested her. Will James, one of the negroes in custody, has admitted he was at the Cooper woman's home Monday night. He was arrested while driving a coal wagon yesterday. Arthur Alexander and Will Thomas are the other two negroes in custody.

Evidences that the girl fought through a terrific struggle before succumbing to her assailants Monday night were discovered when the authorities were confronted with the task of solving the mystery of her murder. Bits of torn clothing strewn the alleyway in which children found her disfigured corpse, these mute evidences of the girl's love of life and purity revealing that she fought against her murderers for two blocks. That her fight was destined to be a losing one was evidenced by the carefully prepared gag and the heavy cloth hands with which her cries for aid were stifled and her strength of resistance overcome.

Miss Pelley was a country girl of rather unusual strength, and the authorities are inclined to believe that more than one person was involved in the attack upon her.

Every police officer in the city is at work on the case, which has caused a tremendous sensation in this vicinity. Mayor Parsons has offered a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the murderers, and a large fund is being subscribed by citizens.

The victim of the crime was 24 years old. She came here a few months ago from Anna, Ill., and has been living with a married sister on Twenty-sixth street.

Because of her frequent habit of spending the night with girl friends, no fear was felt by her relatives when Miss Pelley failed to return home Monday night. She was on her way to take a car home from her work in a local dry goods store when last seen by friends, and it is thought that the crime occurred early in the evening, at least twelve hours before the body was found.

Last night crowds collected around the city and county jails, but were orderly, and there was no talk of lynching. A crowd of several thousands and persons also lingered until a late hour around the scene of the crime.

CANNED GOODS SHORTAGE

If It Isn't One Thing It's Another to Keep Prices Up.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—A big shortage in the crops of tomatoes, corn and other vegetables for canning is reported by the members of the Indiana Canners' association, which convened today.

"Indiana will only produce about 50 per cent of the normal crop of tomatoes for this year," declared one of the members, "and the crop of corn will fall short about 65 or 75 per cent or normal. Other states, however, have been working full force. The Indiana crop is short on account of inclement weather early in the season."

NEWS OF THE RAIL

MEMBERS OF THE RAILWAY BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION IN SESSION.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Members of the Railway Business association, representing many leading systems, met at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York today in annual session. A banquet will be held this evening, at which the speakers will include men prominent in the railroad, business and financial world. In his opening address, President George A. Post said:

"If the association is to be made a permanent economic force, which many of those deeply interested in railway and allied interests have vigorously declared should be done, then there is need of a full and careful consideration of the best means for enlarging its usefulness.

"The more people who are actively interested in its work, the greater will be its influence, and it is most desirable that if, in the opinion of any of its members, its plan and scope should be broadened or its methods changed, the annual meeting is the place for consideration of all such matters, to the end that enthusiasm may prevail and all may feel that they are important factors in the movement."

To Prevent Railway Accidents.

At the call of the Indiana railroad commission, a convention of railway officials was opened at Indianapolis today to consider methods of preventing injuries and fatalities to passengers and employees on the transportation systems of the Hoosier state.

The legislature of 1907 made it the duty of the railroad commission to order an annual convention of division superintendents and such other operating and dispatching officers and employees of the steam roads as the commission may deem best, to discuss the railroad accidents that have taken place during the year and take steps to prevent such accidents.

At the 1908 convention the commission considered death accidents to ten passengers, 105 employees, 70 travelers on the highway and 161 trespassers.

It is stated that the convention this year will not have so many to consider by reason of steps to reduce the number taken by the last convention.

May Grant Wage Increase. Conferences are being held in the east by railway officials to discuss the request of employees of eastern railroads for higher wages.

These demands are based on the high cost of living and the consensus of opinion among railway officers is to grant an increase in pay, but as small an increase as possible.

That course is considered the only alternative of upsetting the improvement being shown in gross earnings.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 234.

The unreliable drinking saloon element is being almost entirely forced out of Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Tennessee. With the four surrounding states dumping this element into the cities of Missouri, it is foolish to expect a decrease in the consumption of liquor.

If you can see anything bright in the future of Missouri in bidding for this class of humanity, we would like to know what it is. Again, the brewers in the cities have delivery wagons that do NOTHING but deliver "Free Samples of the Brewers' Art" into the residences that will accept them.

Besides this, they have mailing lists galore, that are followed up systematically and anyone who will receive free of charge two bottles of beer and an illustrated booklet claiming the healthfulness of these.

All this is hardly self-sustaining, and we believe that it is done to "Show up the Prohibition Idea." If you will read between the lines in these "News Items" and consider the actual conditions, it is not strange that the consumption of liquor is not decreasing. Missouri will also notice that there will be no decrease in her taxes, her penitentiary convicts, or no decrease in her insane asylum inmates and schools for feeble-mindedness, these will all have to keep pace with their cause. How any thinking citizen of Missouri can look optimistically into the next few years is more than we can tell. It will take more than petitions presented to the city councils to move this element on.

DR. J. B. CARMICHAEL

One of Texas's Best Known Physicians Interested in Serum for Cure of Tuberculosis.

Doctor Carmichael, of Montague county, Texas, says: "We of the southwest are vitally interested in the antitoxin for tuberculosis, because of the great number of cases that come to us for our climate.

"Health resorts are now discouraging their presence, and some sections have gone so far as to threaten to deny asylum to visitors from the north and east known to have tuberculosis."

Doctor Carmichael says in Oklahoma physicians infected with tuberculosis are, by law, refused a license to practice.

All this is evidence of a determined and praiseworthy effort to reduce the risk of infection. But considerations of equal justice should not be overlooked. Is the consumptive a man and brother, or a leper, that he should be subjected to social ostracism?

The Wright-Duering antitoxin is what I am here to investigate. I have spent a few days in their offices in the Wright building here in St. Louis, seeing the treatment given, and interviewing those under treatment, and I have seen a number of very enthusiastic people who have been treated and cured, some three or four years back, others recently, but all are so enthusiastic as to the results obtained from this now noted serum in tuberculosis that it seems we have at last conquered this greatest of all foes to civilized mankind.

That the shortage will exceed $1,000,000 is doubted by none. Although the woman who Warriner alleges is one of his blackmailers is living here, no action has been taken against her as yet.

Constables with attachment papers taken out against this woman by department stores raided her apartments today. Not until then did Mrs. Jeanette Stewart, or Ford, break the silence.

"I never blackmailed Charles Warriner out of a dollar," she sobbingly declared. She explained her lavish expenditure of money by saying she inherited a large fortune from her father.

GIRL IS KIDNAPED

SHE WAS AFTERWARD BEATEN AND THEN THROWN INTO THE STREET.

DEATH RESULTED FROM INJURIES

The Father to Devote Life to Finding the Slayer--Sad Fate of Miss Nora Byrnes, of New York, Aged Only 23 Years.

New York, Nov. 10.—"My daughter was kidnapped, drugged, placed in an automobile, fatally beaten, and then thrown into the street and left to die. Of these things I feel certain, and I shall spend the rest of my life and my fortune in hunting down her slayer."

This statement was made yesterday by Michael Byrnes, the father of Miss Nora Byrnes, 23 years old, who died in Blackwells Island hospital after having been picked up unconscious in the street by the police, and charged with intoxication when she was really suffering from fatal injuries.

Miss Byrnes was found on Surf avenue near the Brighton Beach race track on the night of November 4. She left her home at noon on that day and had told her parents she was going to Boonton, N. J., to visit relatives.

The young woman lived with her parents in Brooklyn. She bore an excellent reputation. Besides the mysterious circumstances surrounding her death, the most remarkable feature in the case is the fact that although a policeman charged her with intoxication, took her to court and had her committed to Blackwells Island, he did not take trouble to find out how badly she was injured.

Not until she reached the hospital was it discovered that she was suffering with concussion of the brain and that her body was covered with bruises. She then was committed to the Blackwells Island hospital but it was then too late to save her life or obtain a statement from her which might lead to the arrest of those who beat her.

THE WARRINER SHORTAGE

No Action Taken as Yet Against Alleged Blackmailer.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 10.—With a shortage amounting higher as further penetration is made into the tangled affairs of the Big Four railroad's financial department, the experts in charge of the examination today probed further into the records of Charles L. Warriner, the deposed treasurer.
